Boards for BSW Classrooms

Instructions for designer:

Font Type: Goudi Old Style

Frame Boarder: Royal Gold thin line

Bachelor of Social Work: Programme Specific Outcomes

After successful completion of the BSW programme, students will develop the ability to:

- Appreciate Social Work profession and practice.

- Uphold professional values and ethics of Social Work.

- Pursue Master programme in Social Work.

- Advance human rights, social, economic and environmental justice.

- Intervene with individual, families, groups, organizations & the communities in need and

- Engage in practice-informed research and research-informed generalist social work practice.

Bachelor of Social Work-I: Course Outcome

After successful completion of the BSW-I, students will develop the ability to:

1. Understand the values and principles of social work

2. Understand the Fields of social work

3. Understand the social system and structures

4. Understand social problems and importance of social work intervention

5. Understand and develop the basic skills required for social work practice

6. Understand the importance of promotion of National Integration and peace Building Initiatives

7. Inculcate Universal values for life transformation

Bachelor of Social Work-II: Course Outcome

After successful completion of the BSW-II, students will develop the ability to:

1. Understand the Primary methods of social work

2. Practice social work under the supervision of professionals

3. Understand the functioning of different NGOS/GOs

4. Understand legal procedure and can work as paralegal volunteers

5. Understand the dimensions of human behaviour

6. Understand the concept of rescue, relief and rehabilitation in disaster management

7. Develop communication and life skills

Bachelor of Social Work-III: Course Outcome

After successful completion of the BSW-III, students will develop the ability to:

1. Take up mini research project / Society Empowerment Project

2. Understand the concept of Social Welfare Administration

3. Prepare Memorandum of Association/Bye Law of NGO

4. Prepare Annual Report of NGO

5. Consolidate experiential learning for social work practice

6. Choose Social Work career opportunities

7. Practice ICT and Soft skills

*

Master of Social Work: Programme Specific Outcomes

After successful completion of the MSW programme, students will develop the ability to:

1. Become Professional Social Workers.

2. Become Social Work Educators

3. Uphold professional values and ethics of Social Work.

4. Respond to human needs specially those who are in distress.

5. Pursue M. Phil. / Ph.D. programme in Social Work.

6. Take up jobs in their concerned field.

7. Take up research project.

8. Engage in social action initiatives.

9. Contribute in formulation and implementation of social policy.

Master of Social Work-I: Course Outcome

After successful completion of the MSW-I, students will develop the ability to:

1. Understand Social Work profession and its relation with other discipline

2. Understand social system and structures

3. Understand local , state and national level social problems

4. Understand the fields of social work

5. Understand and practice Social Work methods under the supervision of professionals

6. Understand the importance of social change

7. Understand the dimensions of human behaviour

8. Understand the mechanism of event management

9. Practice ICT, Soft skills and Life skills

10. Understand the concept of Gender and inclusiveness

11. Understand professional ethics and values

12. Respond to human needs and disaster

13. Ability to choose electives for specialized social work practice

14. Understand social policy and social legislations

Master of Social Work-II: Human Resource Management: Course Outcome

After successful completion of the MSW-II (HRM), students will develop the ability to

1. Understand different types of industries and organizations

2. Understand emerging HR Practices

3. Understand the administrative functions in the organization

4. Understand the administration of different labour laws

5. Understand HRD and change management

6. Process the legal compliances

7. Handle the Industrial relation

8. Take care of employee welfare in company/organization

9. Practice Management skills

Master of Social Work-II: Medical and Psychiatric Social Work: Course Outcome

After successful completion of the MSW-II (MPSW), students will develop the ability to

1. Understand the role and importance of social work practice in medical and psychiatric setting

2. Understand Classification , Diagnosis and Management of Mental Disorders

3. Understand Case Management, Home Visit and Follow up.

4. Understand the concept of hospital management.

5. Understand the functioning of rehabilitation centre

6. Conduct Therapeutic counseling sessions.

7. Conduct Research

Master of Social Work-II: Urban and Rural Community Development Outcome

After successful completion of the MSW-II (URCD), students will develop the ability to

1. Deal appropriately with the urban, rural and tribal groups and develop comprehensive understanding of management of natural resources at state and global level.

2. Distinguish between professional and personal self.

3. Develop a comprehensive understanding of Human rights and social justice issues through dalit, women and tribal perspective.

4. Understand the methods and tools of community organization and community development.

5. Understand the scope of community organization and community development.

6. Understand the importance of democratic decentralization, structure, functions, and status of local self governance in Indian society.

7. Understand and deal with social issues.

8. Become more knowledgeable with regard to management of community development projects.

9. Enhance skills for effective community development project management.

10.   Exhaustive understanding of various sectors of development in Indian context.